The same record, under the year 1547, contains a list of the church juels, ornaments, vestments, c, with a note appended to the majority of the items, whether it remained, had been deld. or was sold or stolen ; the last being a common affix to the more valuable articles.6 A combination of these factors was the direct cause of the serious outbreak known as the Great Rebellion in the West, in the year 1549; the most formidable rising that took place in this reign. (It had been heralded by one in Cornwall during the previous year, and was soon followed by that in Norfolk, headed by Eobert Ket, the tanner.) It commenced in the same month which saw the introduction of the English Liturgy--the last spark probably that set all ablaze.6 The.scene of the rebellion was in such close proximity to the parish of East Budleigh, as it occupied all the ground between it and Exeter, that we are fully warranted in believing some of its parishioners would be found among the rebel ranks, to find a death in the great slaughter on Woodbury Common, on August 4th. At its commencement, Walter Ealegh (the father of the future Sir Walter, who was born three years afterwards), was at St. Mary s Clist, and through the misrepresentations of an old woman, with whom he had been conversing, and had told her that with regard to the new orders issued on religious matters, she...
