BookBaby, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Location: Landslide, Montana, a small railroad, logging community nestled in the heart of the Rocky Mountains. Season: Late spring. A cold, wet spring with a record winter snowfall. "Everlasting love has the patience of a saint" Steven Lange, a renowned railroad foreman wants a son. Not only to carry on the family name, but to keep the railroad legacy alive beyond three generations. To Steven's dismay, his loving wife Jackie endured two difficult pregnancies and is medically discouraged from having any more children. Over time Steven's bottled-up frustration boils to the surface: Excessive drinking, anger, resentment, and dark moods. Their marriage unravels. Then like a crack of summer lightning, an Amtrak train derailed on Steven's watch in the mountains of Montana. All accusatory fingers point to Steven and a missing warning flag. No fatalities, but millions in damage. Steven gets suspended. Jackie needs a place to escape from the media, the railroad, and Steven. She whisks their two daughters to a cabin, owned by her best friend Tina, along the Missouri River. She's determined to untangle their lives, and save their derailing marriage. Steven is devastated. His world is spiraling out of control. He visits his father Abel, a retired hardnosed veteran railroader. Instead of comforting words he's mauled by his father's anger for tainting the Lange railroad legacy. Jackie finds her wilderness retreat filled with additional issues: Rough living conditions, a cabin fire, a grizzly bear attack, and her daughter's dismay over no cell phones, internet, and friends. She did meet a gentle man named Lane Foster. He is delightful like the angel cloud that follows him. He's her guardian angel. Steven finds...
