Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Course of Study in the Eight Grades, Vol. 2 The moral aim in education is naturally preeminent and receives first consideration in planning the course of study. In any true plan of education the moral element must constitute the foundation and framework of the whole structure. This is true in theory, and it naturally tends to become true in practice. We believe that the principal changes which have been taking place in the course of study amount to a recombination of educational forces around moral centres. The moral purpose is acquiring a supreme authority, and all the agencies of the school are finding their place and adjustment in subordination to this controlling influence. Not that the result of this concentration upon the moral aim has been fully achieved, but the movement in this direction is positive and strong. The reasons for the above statements may be briefly given. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
