

Brookings Papers on Economic Activity: Spring 2008

By Douglas W. Elmendorf, N. Gregory Mankiw, Lawrence H. Summers

Brookings Institution. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Brookings Papers on Economic Activity: Spring 2008, Douglas W. Elmendorf, N. Gregory Mankiw, Lawrence H. Summers, The Brookings Papers on Economic Activity, long one of Brookings's signature publications, has new leadership. The three incoming editors have all made outstanding contributions to economic research, economic policymaking, and the communication of economic ideas to a broad audience. They will ensure that BPEA continues to be a central meeting place for leading scholars analyzing important economic problems. The new editorial team will retain BPEA's focus on empirical research of current issues in macroeconomics and economic policy, emphasizing real-world events and institutions. The journal will uphold its tradition of excellence in areas such as fiscal and monetary policy, labor markets, wages and prices, the distribution of income and wealth, international capital flows, and international trade and development. Contents include: Economic Growth and Subjective Well-Being: Reassessing the Easterlin Paradox Betsey Stevenson and Justin Wolfers (University of Pennsylvania) Trade and Wages, Reconsidered Paul Krugman (Princeton University) The Economics of Place-Making Policies Edward Glaeser and Joshua Gottlieb (Harvard University).

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
