In 1653 the town made certain grants to John Webster on condition that he establish the first saw mill which he probably did. Mill street was laid out in this year. On February 9, 1654, Stephen Kent was given leave to place a weir in Little River to catch alewives, and this is the first mention of fisheries. Thomas Dow died May 31, this year, the first adult to die in town. The first Quaker arrived in 1655. In 1658 the first administrator was appointed, Robert Clement on the estate of his brother John, who was lost at sea. The first deed was given by Thomas Sleeper and wife, October 11, 1659, to William White. The first burial ground mentioned, is in November, 1660, the land back of the meetinghouse. The first public school was established in 1660,...
