Fuller was born in Jefferson County, New York, November 1, 1834. He went with his father and step-mother into Ohio at the age of five, and in due time entered the public schools of Akron. He had completed the necessary work to become a rural schoolteacher, when an accident caused the loss of his eyes. He was soon appointed to the New York City School for the Blind, where he remained for the five years course of study. Miss Fanny Crosby was one of his teachers. She celebrated her eightyfifth birthday March 24, 1905, and has contributed over eight thousand hymns to our Christian literature.
